'MEETING OF THE BOILERS MAKERS.

meeting of the boiler makers of New York and lyn was held has night at the Crystal, in Grand to drives proper measures to obtain an increase in present wages. There were present quite a number of the trade. Charles Howell was elected eth of the meeting, and steer McKennie, Secretary, if speeches were made, setting forth the claims of alle to an advance of pay for their services, and was necessary to be done to secure their object. Isairman addressed the meeting, and stated that or four years ago, ten or twelve shillings per day is abor went as far as $2 would go now. He thought for their employers looked upon their requests in per spirit, they would see the instice of granting better pay, and would do so. These sentiments much applauded by the meeting.

'eral other gentlemen, in the course of the evening seed the meeting upon the objects it had in view, vere also loudly applauded.

S body of workmen do not intend to strike for r wages, but are going to petition their employers ant them an increase of pay. In accordance with intention a committee was appointed to draft a lon for this purpose.

Battle of the Hair Dye Concoctors.—There is comething rich in the bulletins of the various hair dye venders. What terrible one laughts they make! One say, the other's dye will burn up the hair, leaving the scalp as clean as after an Indian's operation. Another says every dye but his own will turn every particular of hair as green as a peasoneher that it gives the hair all the primatic colors, &c. How perplexing to the red heads and gray heards! In the midst of this condict, DR. GOURAUD screenly marches on, merely announting that his day is, without exception or reservation, the very best that is used; and when he says so, he tells the truth, and every one who uses it knows he utters the truth.
